<sup>d</sup>STAAR Modified is an alternate assessment based on modified academic achievement standards. Modified assessment requirements are outlined in the federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

<sup>e</sup>STAAR Alternate is an alternate assessment based on alternate achievement standards. STAAR Alternate is required by the federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

<sup>f</sup>The STAAR Modified assessment for this course will be phased in beginning in the 2013–2014 school year.

<sup>g</sup>The Texas English Language Proficiency Assessment System is for students currently classified as limited English proficient.

<sup>h</sup>Texas Assessment of Knowledge and Skills. Grade 11 (exit level) assessments are required for graduation for students who are in grades 11 or 12 in the 2012–2013 school year.

<sup>i</sup>TAKS–Modified (TAKS–M) is an alternate assessment based on modified academic achievement standards. Modified assessment requirements are outlined in the federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

<sup>j</sup>The federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act requires the assessment of reading, mathematics, and science in at least one high school grade. Assessments used for 2013 AYP evaluations are subject to change pending USDE approval of the waiver and 2013 AYP Workbook that will be submitted in January 2013.
