Unit 1: Realistic Fiction

Unit Overview: In this unit, students will Consume and Critique realistic fiction and Produce (O’Flahavan) personal narratives utilizing the literary elements found in mentor text. As students consume and critique mentor texts, they will notice what this genre Must Have, Might Have, and Won’t Have (Wood Ray), including genre characteristics and author’s craft. Students will explore realistic fiction to develop their comprehension through the strategy of Book, Head, Heart (Beers and Probst). Students will determine the roles various characters play in the conflict and resolution of the plot, as well as analyze major and minor character relationships, in order to make inferences about them and provide evidence to support theme. Students will respond to literary texts through Quickwrites (Rief), which will provide the seeds for composing personal narratives. As students consume texts in the genre, they will Notice and Name (Wood Ray) author’s craft, which they will later apply to their writing. The teacher will model this process by writing alongside the students highlighting their use of nouns, verbs, and subject-verb agreement. Foundational Language Skills such as oral language, word study, and vocabulary are embedded in mini-lessons and the Fluid Literacy Block. Throughout this unit, you will integrate the instructional practices in the Unit 1 planning guide with the First 25 Days of Reading and the First 25 Day Writing Workshop which will set the foundation for guided reading routines, writing workshop and practices.

Unit 4: Literary Nonfiction-Informational

Unit Overview: In this unit, students will Consume and Critique literary nonfiction and Produce (O’Flahavan) personal narratives utilizing the literary elements and the elements of informational text found in mentor text. As students consume and critique mentor texts, they will notice what this genre Must Have, Might Have, and Won’t Have (Wood Ray), including genre characteristics and author’s craft. Students will explore the genre of Literary Nonfiction which is composed of biographies, autobiographies, and memoirs. While interacting with these texts, students will analyze how authors present major events in a person’s life and identify the literary language used to communicate a message or theme to develop their comprehension through the strategy of Book, Head, Heart (Beers and Probst). Students will respond to literary nonfiction through Quickwrites (Rief), which will provide the seeds for composing personal narratives. As students consume texts in the genre, they will Notice and Name (Wood Ray) author’s craft, which they will later apply to their writing. The teacher will model this process by writing alongside the students highlighting their use of capitalization, prepositions, and pronouns. Foundational Language Skills such as oral language, word study, and vocabulary are embedded in mini-lessons and the Fluid Literacy Block.

Unit 5: Informational Text

Unit Overview: In this genre study, students will Consume, Critique, and Produce (O’Flahavan) informational texts. Students will explore and recognize characteristics and structures of informational text including central idea and features such as sections, tables, graphs, timelines, bullets, numbers, and bold and italicized font to support understanding reading comprehension through the strategy of Book, Head, Heart (Beers and Probst). Students will respond to informational texts through Quickwrites (Rief), which will provide the seeds for composing informational texts. As students consume texts in the genre, they will Notice and Name (Wood Ray) author’s craft, which they will later apply to their writing. As students consume and critique mentor texts, they will notice what this genre Must Have, Might Have, and Won’t Have (Wood Ray), including genre characteristics and author’s craft. Students will apply what they learned from this genre study as they produce their own informational texts. The teacher will model this process by writing alongside the students highlighting their use of verbs, conjunctions, punctuation, and subject-verb agreement. Foundational Language Skills such as oral language, word study, and vocabulary are embedded in mini-lessons and the Fluid Literacy Block.

Unit 9: Informational

Unit Overview: In this genre study, students will Consume, Critique, and Produce (O’Flahavan) informational texts. Students will explore and recognize characteristics and structures of informational text including central idea and features such as sections, tables, graphs, timelines, bullets, numbers, and bold and italicized font to support understanding reading comprehension through the strategy of Book, Head, Heart (Beers and Probst). Students will respond to informational texts through Quickwrites (Rief), which will provide the seeds for composing informational texts. As students consume texts in the genre, they will Notice and Name (Wood Ray) author’s craft, which they will later apply to their writing. As students consume and critique mentor texts, they will notice what this genre Must Have, Might Have, and Won’t Have (Wood Ray), including genre characteristics and author’s craft. Students will apply what they learned from this genre study as they produce their own informational texts. The teacher will model this process by writing alongside the students highlighting their use of verbs, conjunctions, punctuation, and subject-verb agreement. Foundational Language Skills such as oral language, word study, and vocabulary are embedded in mini-lessons and the Fluid Literacy Block.

Unit Overview: In this unit, students will Consume, Critique, and Produce (O’Flahavan) personal essays. As students consume and critique mentor texts, they will notice what this genre Must Have, Might Have, and Won’t Have (Wood Ray), including genre characteristics and author’s craft. Students will explore realistic fiction and traditional tales to develop their comprehension through the strategy of Book. Head, Heart (Beers and Probst). Students will determine the roles various characters play in the conflict and resolution of the plot, as well as analyze major and minor character relationships, in order to make inferences about them and provide evidence to support theme. Students will respond to literary texts through Quickwrites (Rief), which will provide the seeds for composing personal narratives. As students consume texts in the genre, they will Notice and Name (Wood Ray) author’s craft, which they will later apply to their writing. The teacher will model this process by writing alongside the students highlighting their use of nouns, verbs, punctuation, and subject-verb agreement. Unit 12: Thematic Unit

Unit Overview: In this unit, students will explore a thematic unit of study. Students analyze multiple genres and make connections between texts through that allow them to reflect upon the theme-based focus of this unit. Students will determine the roles various characters play in the conflict and resolution of the plot, as well as analyze major and minor character relationships, in order to make inferences about them and provide evidence to support theme. Students will respond to literary and informational texts through Quickwrites (Rief), which will provide the seeds for composing poetry, personal narratives and informational essays. As students consume texts in the genres, they will Notice and Name (Wood Ray) author’s craft, which they will later apply to their writing. The teacher will model this process by writing alongside the students highlighting their use of adjectives, conjunctions, adverbs, punctuation, and subject-verb agreement. Foundational Language Skills such as oral language, word study, and vocabulary are embedded in mini-lessons and the Fluid Literacy Block.

Ongoing TEKS: Unit planning guides identify Ongoing TEKS that align to and support the development of the content standards covered in each unit.

*See unit planning guides for a list of recommended ongoing TEKS specific to each unit of study.

Embedding ongoing TEKS throughout all units of study supports students' development of reading proficiency.

Strand 1: Foundational Language Skills—Beginning Reading and Writing

ELA.3.1A Listen actively, ask relevant questions to clarify information, and make pertinent comments.

ELA.3.1B Follow, restate, and give oral instructions that involve a series of related sequences of action.

ELA.3.1C Speak coherently about the topic under discussion, employing eye contact, speaking rate, volume, enunciation, and the conventions of language to communicate ideas effectively.

ELA.3.1D Work collaboratively with others by following agreed-upon rules, norms, and protocols.

ELA.3.1E Develop social communication such as conversing politely in all situations.

ELA.3.2A.i Demonstrate and apply phonetic knowledge by decoding multisyllabic words with multiple sound-spelling patterns such as eigh, ough, and en.

ELA.3.2A.vii Demonstrate and apply phonetic knowledge by identifying and reading high-frequency words from a research-based list.

ELA.3.2B.i Demonstrate and apply spelling knowledge by spelling multisyllabic words with closed syllables; open syllables; VCe syllables; vowel teams, including digraphs and diphthongs; r-controlled syllables; and final stable syllables.

ELA.3.2D Write complete words, thoughts, and answers legibly in cursive leaving appropriate spaces between words.

Strand 1: Foundational Language Skills—Vocabulary

ELA.3.2D Write complete words, thoughts, and answers legibly in cursive leaving appropriate spaces between words.

Strand 1: Foundational Language Skills—Fluency

ELA.3.4 Use appropriate fluency (rate, accuracy, and prosody) when reading grade-level text.

Strand 1: Foundational Language Skills—Self-Sustained Reading

ELA.3.5A Self-select text and read independently for a sustained period of time.

Strand 2: Comprehension Skills

ELA.3.6A Establish purpose for reading assigned and self-selected texts.

ELA.3.6B Generate questions about text before, during, and after reading to deepen understanding and gain information.

ELA.3.6C Make, correct, or confirm predictions using text features, characteristics of genre, and structures.

ELA.3.6D Create mental images to deepen understanding.

ELA.3.6E Make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society.

ELA.3.6F Make inferences and use evidence to support understanding.

ELA.3.6G Evaluate details read to determine key ideas.

ELA.3.6H Synthesize information to create new understanding.

ELA.3.6I monitor comprehension and make adjustments such as rereading, using background knowledge, asking questions, and annotating when understanding breaks down.

Strand 3: Response Skills

ELA.3.7B Write a response to a literary or informational text that demonstrates an understanding of a text.

ELA.3.7C Use text evidence to support an appropriate response.

ELA.3.7D Retell and paraphrase texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order.

ELA.3.7E Interact with sources in meaningful ways such as notetaking, annotating, freewriting, or illustrating.

Ongoing TEKS: Unit planning guides identify Ongoing TEKS that align to and support the development of the content standards covered in each unit.

*See unit planning guides for a list of recommended ongoing TEKS specific to each unit of study.

Embedding ongoing TEKS throughout all units of study supports students' development of reading proficiency.

ELA.3.7F Respond using newly acquired vocabulary as appropriate.

ELA.3.7G Discuss specific ideas in the text that are important to the meaning.

Strand 5: Author's Purpose and Craft

ELA.3.10A explain the author's purpose and message within a text.

Strand 6: Composition—Writing Process

ELA.3.11Di Edit drafts using standard English conventions, including complete simple and compound sentences with subject-verb agreement.
