Unit 1: Things that Go Bump in the Night

In Unit 1, students review various metacognitive strategies that strong readers engage in as they read. Students read texts in a variety of genres and consider the theme of fear, as well as the impact of fear on our actions. The unit begins with diagnostic personal essays and closes with argumentative essays.

In addition to addressing the focus standards of the unit, students engage in daily supported independent reading and low-stakes writing.
