

Fine Arts – High School Music – Instrumental III

2021-2022 Pacing Calendar

Units of Instruction

Unit 1: Establishing Foundational Skills

Teachers will assess students for the current level of music knowledge and skills in the 5 competency areas through performance, written, and/or aural dictation assessments. Students will continue to develop their fundamental concepts learned the previous year. This will include more in-depth music theory, literacy, and performance skills.

Units of Instruction

Unit 2: Fundamentals Performance Skills
Students will use rudimentary high school level theory skills with basic knowledge of tone production to perform. Intonation and tone quality concepts will be at the forefront of goals. Live or recorded sound exemplars will serve as the models for students. Metronomic tools should be used to develop a strong sense of pulse. Tuning tools and exercises should be used to develop accurate pitch. This can include singing while the teacher reproduces pitches on an instrument, using a tuner or a visual tuning aid. Historical backgrounds of their ensemble area will start to be explored.
