More than 30 HISD schools earn spot on 2018-2019 Texas Honor Roll

June 24, 2019 – Thirty-three Houston Independent School District campuses have been named to the 2018-2019 Educational Results Partnership (ERP) Texas Honor Roll for their high achievement and student success rates.

“We applaud our hard-working teachers, staff, and students,” said HISD Interim Superintendent Grenita Lathan. “We are especially proud of our schools that despite the high-poverty levels, they still have high-achieving results.”

Schools can earn a spot on the ERP Honor Roll in three categories: Star – high-achieving, high-poverty campuses; Scholar – high-achieving, low-poverty campuses; or STEM – top 10 percent of high-poverty, high-achieving campuses in math and science.

Twenty-four HISD schools were designated as Star Schools and nine were designated Scholar Schools. In addition, three HISD schools were designated as Star and STEM Schools.

HISD 2018-2019 ERP Texas Honor Roll schools are:
