

HISD MEDIA ADVISORY

Scarborough Elementary School to celebrate construction progress on new building

WHAT: Scarborough Elementary School will host a celebration to recognize construction progress on its new school, which is slated to open in the summer of 2020.

Scarborough is one of four elementary schools being rebuilt after sustaining significant damages in August 2017 from Hurricane Harvey. The new school will feature open, brightly colored learning spaces, large windows providing abundant natural light, and extended learning spaces throughout the building for individual and group collaboration.

Additional construction celebrations will be held this weekend at Kolter Elementary School and in October at Mitchell Elementary School.

Media will be able to capture footage of the construction site, as well as students, staff, and district officials participating in the beam signing.

WHO: HISD Board of Education Trustees, HISD Interim Superintendent Grenita Lathan, Scarborough Principal Miriam Medina, school stakeholders, community members, students, parents, and staff.

WHEN: Wednesday, Sept. 11
5 p.m.

WHERE: Scarborough Elementary School's original campus, 3021 Little York Road, 77093
