HISD to announce student winners of annual holiday greeting card contest

17 finalists selected from 95 entries this year

WHAT: The Houston Independent School District will unveil the winners of the district's 2019 holiday greeting card student art competition.

This year, 17 students from HISD elementary, middle, and high schools have been named finalists from a total of 95 entries. The finalists were chosen by the district's area superintendents.

During a ceremony at the Hattie Mae White Educational Support Center, the winning cards will be announced by HISD Interim Superintendent Grenita Lathan, who will select a winner from each school level.

The winning students will be present for the unveiling.
