

HISD MEDIA ADVISORY

HISD Nutrition Services to celebrate Thanksgiving with students, parents on Nov. 21

WHAT: HISD Nutrition Services is set to host its annual Thanksgiving Day celebration in recognition of the holiday.

The Thanksgiving meal is an HISD tradition that has attracted thousands of families to school cafeterias for more than 50 years. The event gives parents and caregivers a chance to celebrate the holiday by sharing a meal with their children.

Students are encouraged to ask their parents to join them for a special lunch — featuring oven roasted turkey, creamy mashed potatoes with turkey gravy, stuffing, green beans, fresh fruit medley, and a dinner roll — served by school cafeterias to commemorate the day.

Note to editors and reporters: Media are invited to Lantrip Elementary School to interview participating students, parents, and staff, and capture footage of lunch.

WHO: HISD district staff, Principal Magdalena Strickland, as well as students, staff and family members

WHEN: Thursday, Nov. 21, 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

WHERE: Lantrip Elementary School, 100 Telephone Rd., 77023
