Character Focus at Lovett Elementary

Character Education is a learning process that supports children and adults in a classroom environment to understand, process, act on core and enact positive social behaviors and core ethical values.

This month we are learning about Trustworthiness which includes honesty, reliability, punctuality, and loyalty. What it means, why it is important and how to practice it every day.

Trustworthiness is the ability to be relied on as honest and truthful with high moral character. Four qualities of trustworthiness are integrity, honesty, promise-keeping and loyalty.

Talk About It Trustworthiness

Teaching Children to be Trustworthy

1. Be an example. You need to be good examples for your children.
2. Have a conversation. You should have a talk with your children about what trust is and what you expect from them.
3. Give praise and set consequences.
4. Give opportunity.
