

HISD MEDIA ADVISORY

HISD Superintendent to walk door-to-door encouraging students to return to school

WHAT: The Houston Independent School District will hold its annual Students Within Reach Walk to find students who have not returned to their campus for the fall semester and encourage them to re-enroll.

HISD Board of Trustees members, Superintendent Millard House II, staff, and community volunteers will knock on doors and personally encourage students to return to school. In addition, students will receive information on numerous academic and non-academic support systems and resources HISD offers to help them graduate.

More than 25 high schools will be participating.

WHO: HISD Board of Education Trustees, Superintendent Millard House II, district administrators, principals, community leaders, and volunteers.

WHEN: Saturday, Sept. 18, 2021
A press conference will be held at 9:30 a.m. in the Kashmere High School cafeteria. After the press conference, Superintendent House will join volunteers and visit student homes.
