La prueba de lectura STAAR será el martes 25 de abril. El campus estará cerrado para los visitantes todos los días de prueba.2022-2023

I. SIP

a. Board Goals 1 and 2 Academic Achievement Reading and Math: Staar needs to be completed to update those goals.

STAAR Test Dates: Reading 4.24, Science 5.02, and Math 05.09

b. Board Goal 3 Tiered Interventions: Ensure Tier I,II,III are receiving interventions throughout the day. We met that goal.

c. Board Goal 4 Academic Achievement Special Education: We will not have these final goals met until after the STAAR assessment.

d. Board Goal 5

- ATTENDANCE- Attendance for each grading cycle will improve by .1% with a year-end attendance rate of 97.5%- 2 grade levels meeting that goal. (3rd/5th grade)
- PARENT and COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT - Title 1 Coordinator to set up parent meetings throughout the year.
 - Parents are given the opportunity to attend the morning or evening sessions. Meetings are offered virtually to increase participation from any location.
 - Meetings are being offered virtually during and after school.
- COORDINATED HEALTH PROGRAM - The campus offers Hazel Health services, vision screening, dental programs, and growth and development to ensure student, health safety and well-being
- Hazel Health:If the consent is signed we can provide them a virtual appt. Parents are able to sign a consent to attend a virtual visit with a doctor here at school and or home.
 - Vision and dental services provided to students.

II. Resources

- Clinic- we were able to purchase clinic items . (supplies, wheelchair and other resources)

- Lab- purchase science tables for our science labs.

III. Budget:

- School- The board did not approve the proposed budget for next year. We are now waiting for new budget projections.
- Activity Fund- Expenses after school events were about $700.
- We purchased Spark Park renovations and we are continuing to fundraise to fix our Marque.
