

HISD PRESS RELEASE

Millard House II to present 10 outstanding students with Superintendent Scholars Awards

WHAT: Houston Independent School District Superintendent Millard House II will surprise ten high school seniors with the 2021-2022 HISD Superintendent Scholars Award at their home campuses.

The award is for high school seniors who have exemplified outstanding character and resilience by facing and overcoming obstacles in their lives, including navigating the foster care system, homelessness, and other unique challenges.

Every HISD high school principal nominated one senior for this award. The 35 students nominated will receive a scholarship from the district. The base amount for this award is $1,200. Superintendent House reviewed all nominees and selected the top ten students to receive a $2,600 scholarship.

Superintendent House will personally visit each campus of the top ten students selected. He will present them with a scholarship check, a certificate, and a yard sign for their persistence in overcoming life's most challenging adversities.
