

HISD MEDIA ADVISORY

HISD seniors to receive associate degrees during HCC commencement ceremonies

WHAT: More than 400 Houston Independent School District seniors from multiple high schools will walk the stage and receive an associate degree diploma or Level 1 certificate credential at the Houston Community College commencement ceremonies.

These HISD students are enrolled in dual credit classes in the district's Futures Academies, Early College High Schools or select Career and Technical Education (CTE) programs. The students simultaneously earned two years of college credits and/or valuable industry certifications in high-demand career fields, at no cost to them.

Reporters who cannot attend the graduation may obtain interviews with dual credit graduates by contacting the HISD Press Office at PressOffice@HoustonISD.org.

Media planning to attend the graduation should RSVP to the Press Office.

WHO: HISD Educators, students and their families

WHEN: Thursday, May 12
9am

WHERE: NRG Arena
1 NRG Parkway, 77054

The Houston Independent School District is the largest school district in Texas and the eighth-largest in the United States, with 276 schools and nearly 197,000 students. The 333-square-mile district is one of the largest employers in the Houston metropolitan area, with more than 27,000 employees.
