HISD Superintendent to host media availability on accountability scores

WHAT: The Houston Independent School District earned a B from the Texas Education Agency's academic accountability ratings for the 2021-2022 school year.

The ratings are based on performance on state standardized tests, graduation rates, college, career, and military readiness outcomes. HISD scored an 88 and saw significant improvement at previously struggling campuses.

Ensuring great schools and programs in every community is one of six foundational commitments of HISD's Five Year Strategic Plan. The new scores from the TEA demonstrate that a successful transformation is underway.

Superintendent Millard House II will provide his reaction to the accountability scores.
