November 29, 2023

- I. Call to order @ 3:16
 - a. In Attendance – Lisa Jenkins, Karen Miller, Kaura Webb, Brian Castle, Leah Follette, Susan Vistein, Cindy Lillard, Marion Woerner, Paula Bottecelli, Alma Estrada, Scott Disch

- II. Budget and Enrollment
 - a. Snapshot - 1089
 - b. Enrollment Number – 1123
 - c. Budget – The school budget is projected to cover subs and tutorials for the rest of the year. Since enrollment is over projection, we anticipate receiving extra funds.

- III. Safety/Building Update
 - a. Security – The lockdown drill in the fall was a success and another will be completed in the spring.
 - b. Plumbing – There is a leak on the property that has doubled the water usage over the last couple of months. WU public works notified the school and the district is investigating. This does not negatively impact the school’s budget.

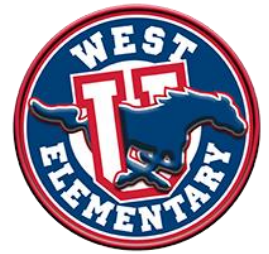

- IV. Celebrations
 - a. Monstrous Book Fair – The book fair was a success. This year, parents were allowed to attend with their children and the PTO is looking at moving the event to the spring next year.
 - b. Fun Run – Went off without any issue. It was a huge success and will continue to be a great fundraiser for years to come.
 - c. U.S. and World News Report – WUES was named the #1 ES in HISD and #10 in Texas.
