National Junior Honor Society Application

I, ________________________________, would like to be considered for membership into the West Briar Middle School Chapter of National Junior Honor Society. If I am selected as a member, I am willing to do the following:

1. Attend meetings on a regular basis. Meetings are held during the Advocacy period and occasionally after-school.
2. Maintain an overall 85 average and an E in conduct. A copy of your Report Card will be on file with the NJHS Sponsors. (E in conduct also means that no behavior issues or office referrals.)
3. Participate in school and community projects willingly, which may be after school or on Saturdays.
4. Complete the required number of NJHS Service Project hours (15 hrs. for Members & 20 hrs. for officers).

Please list any organizations in which you are currently involved:

Please complete the essay below and (if needed) on the back of this form.

Describe a Grizzly Value (Integrity * Respect * Perseverance) that you have developed over the past school year. Be specific in your description providing examples of your development as a learner. Which value do you plan on developing this school year? Explain why you feel this particular characteristic needs developing. What is your action plan for this development? Again, provide specific examples of what actions you will undertake to develop this characteristic.

Things to Note: As a NJHS member you will be expected to maintain the creed of NJHS, which embodies Honesty, Integrity, Leadership, and Character.

*I understand that completing this form does not guarantee selection to NJHS, and I verify that all information presented here is complete and accurate. I understand that I will be always held accountable to the NJHS creed both in school and in the community.
