HISD and City of Houston announces winners of Inaugural Truck Artwork Competition

WHAT: Houston Independent School District and the City of Houston Solid Waste Management Department Truck Art competition winners have been chosen and will be celebrated at a special ceremony. Several HISD students between K-12 grade have been submitting their unique artwork creations since the beginning of the year to be featured on City of Houston waste collection trucks promoting sustainability through recycling. While at the ceremony, students will meet Mayor Sylvester Turner and receive special remarks from the city council. They will also receive a framed copy of their artwork and be able to get a good look at the trucks which will have their unique creations displayed.

This year's theme was "I RECYCLE FOR HOUSTON" and all artwork was judged by age groups. The four category winners are as followed:

- Category 1 Winner: Tremayne Edwards (SPED)
- Category 2 Winner: Celine Derya Tarhan (2nd Grade)
- Category 3 Winner: Angela Yax (8th Grade)
- Category 4 Winner: Elizabeth Crescenciano (9th Grade)
