Achievement summary – final score has still not been released but in reviewing STAAR data for 2022-2023, there was a decline.

Confounding factors – change in assessment, less technology access and instructional delivery. Short constructed responses on Reading STAAR in particular (especially emphasis on science and social studies content areas).

Strengthening instructional structures (streamlining curriculum, increasing Literacy Now participation, and increasing/protecting intervention specialist support time, maximizing instructional time). Emphasizing attendance, VIPS involvement.
