Notes:

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. District Rate" from the "All Student District Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

* Data standards are not set by the Performance-Based Monitoring Analysis System 2013 Manual for Econ Dis, ELL, Hispanic, and African American.

Notes:

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

Notes:

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

Notes:

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

Notes:

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

Notes:

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

* Data standards are not set by the Performance-Based Monitoring Analysis System 2013 Manual for Econ Dis, ELL, Hispanic, and African American.

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

* Data standards are not set by the Performance-Based Monitoring Analysis System 2013 Manual for Econ Dis, ELL, Hispanic, and African American.

2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

Notes:

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

Notes:

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

* Data standards are not set by the Performance-Based Monitoring Analysis System 2013 Manual for Econ Dis, ELL, Hispanic, and African American.

Notes:

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

* Data standards are not set by the Performance-Based Monitoring Analysis System 2013 Manual for Econ Dis, ELL, Hispanic, and African American.

Notes:

1. Special education rate differences greater than the PBMAS standard are highlighted red. Rate differences equal to or below the PBMAS standard are highlighted green.
2. Although the PBMAS District Standard is provided, this standard is not applicable at the campus level. This number has been provided to show the school impact on the district rate.
3. The PBMAS standard is a "difference rate" between the rate of students with disabilities and the district rate. The "difference rate" is expected to not exceed the PBMAS standard.
4. Differences are calculated by subtracting the "All St. Demo. Campus Rate" from the "All Student Campus Rate." A negative difference indicates a subgroup rate lower than the "All" rate.

* Data standards are not set by the Performance-Based Monitoring Analysis System 2013 Manual for Econ Dis, ELL, Hispanic, and African American.
