Teachers and students can access this site through the HISD HUB’s Digital Resources page
Default settings do not allow sharing personally identifying information (PII), but settings can be changed by students - warn students not to share personal information
Chats and bulletin board postings are not actively monitored

Click to see full review