Considerations for use

- Teachers can set up a classroom account, but do not need student email addresses to enroll students.
- All data collected are encrypted in transit, and products do not display ads.
- Personal information is not sold or shared with third parties.

* PC

Click to see full review