At-risk Services

Students who are at-risk of dropping out of school should be provided services to ensure that they remain in school and graduate. Services can include, but are not limited to:

- tutorials;
- class size reduction; (Note: SCE funds cannot be used to meet State or Federally mandated rules);
- computer-assisted instruction;
- specialized staff development to train personnel who are working with students at risk of dropping out of school;
- specialized reading and mathematics programs;
- TAKS/STAAR remediation;
- individualized instruction;
- accelerated instruction; and
- extended day, week or year instructional services.
