DISCUSSION:

1. The meeting began with Welcome & Introductions by Christel Coleman, HISD Program Manager and a brief review of the planned Agenda.
2. Design Progress Update was provided by Randall-Porterfield Architects, and referred to the PowerPoint slide presentation.
3. Jim, Randall-Porterfield Architects, discussed changes made as a result of feedback received from the JROTC and performing arts staff as noted below:
   a. 200 S.F. was removed from the Rifle Range and added to the Learning Center
   b. Four offices were added to the Band area
   c. Vandal resistant doors will be installed at the storage area for the rifles
4. LaJuan Harris, HISD Planner, asked if the design for the Rifle range still meets the Ed. Spec. requirements since some of the square footage has been removed.
   a. The Randall-Porterfield team confirmed, ‘Yes,’ the Rifle Range does still meet the requirements in the Ed. Spec.
5. Ms. Harris commented that the office layout should possibly be revised to accommodate a larger shared office for the Assistant Band Director and Band Director to keep with the 21st Century principles.
6. Randall-Porterfield noted that in the Dance Room, the end user would like mirrors on two walls and a ballet bar as part of the renovations.
7. Principal Linares noted that Randall-Porterfield needed to meet with the User Groups again to show them the layout updates. The team agreed, and Christel Coleman, HISD Program Manager, will coordinate with Ms. McMillan to set this meeting up with Dance, JROTC, and Band user groups.
8. Principal Linares commented that the name the PAT agreed on for the new JROTC building is the “JROTC & Performing Arts Building.”
9. Carrie, Randall-Porterfield, asked if there were security standards for the reception area in the Welcome Center.
   a. Ms. Harris responded that once a visitor passes through the safety vestibule, the reception area can be accessed. There will be 2 buzzers at the Welcome Center.
10. PAT discussed possibly rescheduling the December PAT meeting for January. Ms. Coleman will follow up with Principal Linares to confirm a date.
